REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1921

FRED E. KIRSTE ENDS HIS LIFE AT RUNNYMEDE

Fred E. Kirste, a well-known resident of Redwood City for the past sixteen years, committed suicide at his poultry farm at Runnymede at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon by shooting himself through the mouth with a .32 caliber pistol.

Mr. Kirste no doubt planned the suicide. Before leaving his home here he took a bath, changed his underwear and shaved, put on his new suit and started for the ranch. It is supposed that he purchased the pistol at Palo Alto. Mr. Kirste has been in poor health for several years and last December disposed of his chickens at Runnymede in order to be near medical assistance here. He left a brief note stating that no one was to blame for the act, that he was ill and was certain to become an invalid. Suicide was the only way out of the difficulty.

When he did not return in the evening, Ben Zimmermann, who is married to a daughter of Mrs. Kirste, went to Runnymede and found the body.

Mrs. Kirste was at the depot waiting for a train for the city. She was on her way to Antioch to see her daughter, who is a teacher there and is sick with influenza, when the news reached her. She came home at once.

W. A. Brooke held an inquest yesterday, the jury bringing in a verdict of suicide.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 1 o'clock from the family home on Stambaugh street. Interment is to be in Cypress Lawn cemetery. Mr. Kirste was a native of Germany, aged 46. He was a hard working, God fearing man, a good citizen admired and loved by all. The family has the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

About ten years ago Kirste conducted a candy store in Redwood City, afterwards being employed in the tannery and for the last two or three years has had a chicken ranch at Runnymede.

He is survived by his widow, Hattie Kirste; a brother, William B., and two step-daughters, Mrs. Ben Zimmermann of Redwood City and Miss Florence Bundy, who is a teacher in the Antioch high school.

CAROLINE HEINER SUES AUTO DRIVER FOR INJURIES

Caroline Heiner, one of Redwood's oldest and most respected residents, has brought suit in the superior court, through John D. Willard, her attorney, against Joseph and Eugene Brero of San Francisco, for damages for injuries sustained by her by reason of their negligently running her down with their automobile.

Mrs. Heiner alleges that the defendants drove their automobile against her with great force and violence while she was crossing the State Highway at Redwood City just opposite the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Chilcott, where she was going on the evening of April 4th, 1920.

Mrs. Heiner was so seriously injured that she was for some time confined in the hospital at Redwood, and incurred heavy expenses for hospital treatment and medical services which she alleges the defendants have refused to make good to her.

It is understood that the defendants have refused to settle with Mrs. Heiner for her expenses and injuries on the ground that the insurance company with whom they were insured are liable to make the payments, and the insurance company has refused to settle on the ground that the defendants caused the injury while driving an automobile not covered by their policy, which the defendants deny.

It is said the defendants are well able to pay but stand on their contention that it is up to the insurance company.

Mrs. Heiner alleges that she still suffers from her injuries and that she is entitled to recover the sum of $10,158.00 as damages for her pain and suffering and permanent injuries.

SEQUIOA VS. SAN MATEO

The unlimited and the 130-pound teams of the Sequoia Union High School met the basketball teams of the same class of the San Mateo Union High School last night in the San Mateo Hi Gymnasium. The games were played too late for the results to be published in this issue but if the local lads win they will be tied with the fast Campbell teams with whom they will play the finals. The local teams this year have played wonderfully good basketball and reflect great credit upon Coach Griffin.

The line-up for the games was announced as follows:

Unlimited—Robertson, center; Lodi and Britschgl, forwards; Delucci and Kreiss, guards. The 130 pounder: Parsons, center; Stevens (captain) Torres and Bridges, forwards; McCarthy and Locatelli guards.

FUNERAL OF MARY JANE TOWNSEND THURSDAY

All that was mortal of Mary Jane Townsend, the pioneer lady of this section, was laid away in Union cemetery on Thursday afternoon, having died at San Jose on Tuesday morning. Sorrowing relatives and friends followed the body to its last resting place. The remains were removed from the Redwood City Undertaking parlors at 2 o'clock to Foresters' hall where they were met by the members of Bonita Parlor, N. D. G. W., who read the ritual service for the dead. The ceremony was very impressive. Rev. Thomas of the M. E. church delivered a beautiful and touching address on the inspiring life of the deceased. He paid a nice tribute to the memory of the dead pioneer woman. Mrs. Miles Sharkey rendered several hymns.

The following old friends acted as pallbearers: Guy P. Hull, Walter Knight, F. W. Glennan, C. Lockier, C. Kreiss and George McNulty.

Mrs. Townsend was born in San Francisco nearly 66 years ago but came to Searsville, now Portola, as a child. Her father, the late William Lloyd, was the village blacksmith and as a little girl Mrs. Townsend wandered over the hills and vales around her native home, revelling in the beauty and fragrance of the wild flora, charmed by the matchless music of the forest's feathered orchestra, awed by the sublimity of nature in her grander manifestations this child of honest parents, grew to womanhood under most favorable auspices. After graduating from the Denman school in San Francisco she returned to Searsville where she soon afterwards married A. P. Townsend, who passed away several years ago.

Mrs. Townsend is survived by one son, John Parker Townsend, who is a resident of Montana but who was at his mother's bedside before she passed away. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. P. H. McEvoy of Oakland, Mrs. W. J. McDonald, wife of the noted singer, who resides in New York. John Lloyd, who died several years ago, was her brother.

Mrs. Townsend was a sweet, good woman, beloved by all. She was prominent in lodge circles, being a member of Olive Branch Rebekah Lodge. The Fraternal Aid Union and Bonita Parlor, No. 10, Native Daughters of the Golden West, being a past president of the latter organization.

PAST REFLECTIONS

Dear Denny!—The death of our old friend Duncan McPherson brings to my mind some of the old-time newspaper men of Redwood City and I thought it might be of interest to mention a few of them in a passing thought.

Duncan McPherson was not only a good newspaper man but he was a good business man as well and accumulated a goodly fortune which he enjoyed in his old age.

Ridgeway G. Rowley was another of our local editors. He was of old age, but his delightful editorials were the life of the local press. He made and saved money while in the local field and is now enjoying the fruits of a joyous old age in the home of his youth in the East.

Horace N. Nutting who was for a time superintendent of schools and district attorney of San Mateo county was the editor of the Times-Gazette. He was a wonderfully fluent writer and his good looks and pleasing personality won him great popularity. Had he possessed the necessary strength of character he would have probably gained wide fame. He died at an early age and is buried in the local cemetery.

Superior Judge George H. Buck was editor of the Journal for a while and one of his editorials almost resulted in his having to fight a duel with Fremont Older, who was at that time the editor of the Times-Gazette. In those days Fremont Older was just learning the business here in Redwood City and a good part of the knowledge of politics and men which he acquired then stood him in good stead in his later work on the San Francisco dailies.

Ralph Smith who followed soon after was a talented man but he didn't care if he hurt the feelings of his fellow townsmen and because of an article which he published he was shot and killed by A. Powell, brother-in-law of Dr. S. S. Stambaugh, one of the pioneer physicians of the county. John C. Calhoun and General John F. Sheehan were for a time editors of the Times-Gazette. They were both fine men and gifted writers. Henry M. and Frank Owen edited the Times-Gazette in 1891 and in 1892 started the Free Press which lived about a year. They were pleasant gentlemen who were always seeking political preferment.

The Redwood City Democrat about that time was under the direction of F. A. Thompson who came here from Santa Rosa. W. J. Savage, who at present is supervising principal of the Daily City schools, as a very young man put life and hope in that struggling paper and kept it alive until it was taken over by W. D. Crowe who was a fine man and a good editor. He was followed by W. L. Davis and J. V. Swift our efficient postmaster who turned the Democrat over to the Standard over to the efficient management of our friend James D. Hedge. During Mr. Hedge's early connection with the Democrat, he and Ed. McGittigan started the Star, a daily paper. The Star was a paper of great merit but as the field was not extensive enough for a daily paper, the Star was discontinued a year from the day it was started.

For the 27 years' the Times-Gazette has been under your own guidance and care. It has always stood for what was best and right in the community and has steadfastly upheld the principles of the republican party and was a factor in sending our old friend Sam Shorridge to the United States Senate.

YOUR OLD FRIEND.

COUNTY BOARD IN REGULAR SESSION

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, February 21, 1921.

A communication was received from John McLaren, superintendent of the Park Commission of San Francisco, asking the board to accompany him on a visit next Saturday to Sharp Park, Brighton Beach, on the Coast side of the county, to discuss plans relative to improving conditions there. Supervisor Hickey explained that Sharp Park is owned by the City of San Francisco, having been donated to that municipality by the late Mrs. Sharp and the Park Commission is now planning to make it a municipal playground for San Francisco.

Mrs. Nash, the clerk of the board was directed to write Mr. McLaren and explained to him that it will be impossible for the supervisors to make the trip on next Saturday on account of this being the week of the annual convention of the State Supervisors' Association, but that the following Saturday would be an agreeable date.

The following applications were read for the position of night watchman and janitor to fill the place of C. Peterson, who resigned recently on account of ill health.

Edward McAuliffe, Frank Larrouy, George W. Elkerenkotter and Jens Hansen, all of Redwood City. On motion of Hickey, seconded by Mrs. Brown, George W. Elkerenkotter was appointed to the position.

A petition signed by J. L. Kent and other tax payers of the Fourth township was received, asking for the closing and abandonment of certain unused streets and roads on the property of Mrs. Minnie Wienieke at Moss Beach. The petition was presented by Edw. F. Fitzpatrick of Redwood City, who had Mrs. Elizabeth M. Nash sworn to give testimony as to the validity of the names on the petition.

in some instances even more.

If we want to pay a salary of $4000 to a superintendent of schools, we should be paid the same amount. We speak not altogether for the present official, Row W. Cloud, who is a very able superintendent, but for the future head of the office.

Mr. Ekward is urged to incorporate this salary in the government act so that the people may be sure of having a capable, efficient and able man or woman at the head of our educational affairs. If the superintendent knows his business he will see that the teachers are capable and able to give good service to the county in educating the youth and sending them out on their careers worthy men and women.

THE WOOL SITUATION
Now put yourself in the woolgrower's place for a moment. During the past few years the United States has been importing wool at the rate of from 250,000,000 to 400,000,000 pounds a year, to say nothing of millions of yards of cloth manufactured abroad from foreign wool. There is a surplus of wool and still more coming on almost every ship from Australia, Argentine or South Africa.

The American wool grower finds no buyers hunting his product, and the price quoted is less than the cost of production. If you were in his place wouldn't you want an import duty on wool? The American farmer pays taxes into the Federal, the State and the county treasury for the privilege of living and doing business here.
Why shouldn't the foreigner pay a tax for the privilege of marketing his products here, which privilege enables him to take away our good American gold? Furthermore, since it is clearly evident that the foreign producer can undersell the American producer, wouldn't you think, if you were an American wool grower, that it would be no more than right to make the import tax high enough to represent the difference in cost of production, so that you could do business on an equality with your foreign competitor? Wouldn't you think that tax no more than justice to you as an American citizen, helping to maintain American institutions, American wage scales and American standards of living? The woolgrow-er thinks he is asking only what is fair. If you were in his place, wouldn't you ask for the same thing?

WASHINGTON QUILTS THE ARMY

December 23, 1783, George Washington resigned his commission as commander-in-chief of the army, and retired to private life. During the five years following the close of his military career he found sufficient occupation in attending to the affairs of his homestead and property and in fostering the progress of his native state. He greatly helped, by his correspondence, to bring the leading men of the country to a determination to form a more perfect union.

He was president of the Philadelphia convention of 1787, which framed the Constitution of the United States.
Washington was unanimously chosen the first president of the United States, and on April 30, 1789, took the oath of office in New York, where Congress was then sitting. At the close of his term of office he was re-elected unanimously and on March 4, 1793, took the oath of office for the second time.

A SIGNIFICANT COINCIDENCE

It may be only a coincidence, but it is a fact worth remembering, that during the year 1920, when values of farm products took such a slump the United States increased its imports of foodstuffs 64 per cent as compared with the previous year and decreased its exports 22 per cent. Of course Underwood and the rest of the Southern free trade democrats will tell you that it was only a coincidence—that the increased importations had nothing to do with the fall in value of farm products. They will tell you, as the democrats tariff commission does, that the importations of Canadian wheat had nothing to do with the fall of wheat prices below the cost of production. But few people will believe them. It is manifestly the natural effect of increased buying abroad to decrease the price of the home product; else why should there be any buying abroad? Isn't this plain common sense?

AN INDEX

One significant index of the process of deflation that is now going on is the decrease of insurance on goods held in warehouses. The Boston News Bureau reports that one New York insurance company has suffered a decrease of 48 per cent in the amount of premiums received from insurance on the Brooklyn water front, a great warehouse district. another New York company showed a cancellation in premiums amounting to $300,000 during the last half of 1920, due largely to depleted stocks of merchandise. Other insurance companies report similar declines in their business due to the same cause. After these abnormally large accumulations of goods have been disposed of, industry will resume at a rate that will supply our normal demand, and wage earners will find employment without fear of violent fluctuations in their compensation and without danger of losing their jobs.

PENSIONS $265,000,000

The Senate has passed the annual pension appropriation bill amounting to $265,000,000, with $500,000 additional for fees and expenses of examining surgeons. Senator Porter J. McCumber of North Dakota, the chairman of the Pension Committee, had the measure in charge, and under his leadership it was passed without debate.

JURY AWARDS $2000 FOR DAMAGES IN AUTO ACCIDENT

A jury in the superior court on Monday rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the damage suit of Louis May and wife against John Rothchild for $2000. Three of the jurymen were for the defendant, nine being a sufficient number for a verdict. Edward L. May, son of the plaintiffs, aged 34, was injured in an automobile accident at Burlingame last year. His machine collided with defendant's. May died several months afterwards from the alleged effects of the injuries.
Mr. Miller of San Francisco and Lee T. Ross represented the defendant while Crabbe and Webster of San Francisco appeared for Mr. May and wife.

What Is a "Fair" Tax Rate?

Suppose you own a shed worth $100.

Suppose you pay $1 in taxes on this shed.

Your tax rate is, clearly, 1 per cent on actual value.

If you pay $1.63 in taxes on your shed, your tax rate is 1.63 per cent on actual value, and this is what State officials say our average tax rate is. To be exact, the rate is given as $1.632 on each $100 of actual value.

That's all there is to this taxation question.

What Should Utility Companies Pay?

Now apply the same process to public utility companies, from whom the State collects a tax that is passed along to the citizens. For example, the Seavey Tax Commission's valuation on operative properties of railroads and street railroads is $519,620,000, in 1916.
On the same basis used by Mr. Seavey they are worth less today.

If you paid, like the average citizen, $1.63 on each $100, they would have paid the State, in 1920, $8,480,000.
As a matter of fact, they paid in 1920, $10,122,000, or an excess of $1,642,000 over the $1.63 rate. In other words, they are paying, not $1.63 per cent, like anyone else, but 1.94 per cent on the Seavey Tax Commission's valuation of their properties.

Now our State officials demand that the taxes on public utility companies be still further increased.

A Fair Proposition

If these companies are not now paying their fair share of the proper cost of State government, they should do so. If they are now paying what they should pay, the tax burden on the public should not be increased. This situation demands facts and fair play.

The Facts Are These:

Today—to use the same example—railways and street railways are paying taxes at the rate of $1.94
In 1916 the Seavey Tax Commission estimated the tax paid by railroads and street railroads as compared with the value of their properties at $1.63 An increase, since 1916, on each $100 on the Seavey valuation of $1.63 or, in percentage, an increase of 59 per cent over the 1916 rate.
The average citizen's direct taxes have increased, meanwhile, 35 per cent on property which is like that of the public utilities, in that it has not increased in value.

Our Citizens Must Decide.

It is for all citizens to decide whether the indirect taxes they pay through public utility companies shall be again increased when these companies are already paying at the rate of 59 per cent more on the Seavey valuation than they paid in 1916.

Be not deceived. This is your affair. The money collected through public utilities is charged back to you in the cost of food, clothes, rent, light, heat, interest rates and transportation—in everything you buy.

No Ad Valorem Tax

Remember:
No revenue deficit exists.
No ad valorem tax is needed.

WORD FROM M. E. RYAN

Redwood City, Feb. 23, 1921.—Mr. D. E. O'Keefe, Editor Times-Gazette, Redwood City. Dear Sir:—In reference to your editorial in your last issue of February 19th, 1921, entitled "Others should be punished for violating the law," I wish to say I agree with you in this statement, but I beg to disagree with you when you state that there was made "Flesh of one and fish of another."

You further state, "It is said, that there are sixteen blind pigs in Redwood City." I cannot vouch for the above number, but it is safe to say, there are several. May I take this opportunity of informing you of the facts of the investigation just made I presume you are aware that an investigator was employed and with instructions to investigate the alleged sale of liquor in Redwood City. I wish too, at this time, to emphasize the fact, that the Saddle Rock Restaurant, nor any of the several so-called "Blind pigs" were picked out for slaughter, but as stated above, the investigation was made on the basis of illegal sale of liquor in Redwood City, which I take it, means all places. These instructions were carried out. Several places were visited. The investigators were unsuccessful in obtaining liquor in only one of the many places visited, namely the Saddle Rock Restaurant. I may say, it required no great skill, or password, or introduction, to obtain liquor, as it was readily served in the days before the Volstead Act. I understand the people of the United States of America do not want and have passed a law forbidding the sales of intoxicating liquors. A law, all Americans should obey, a law, that I, as trustee of this city, swore to uphold on being inaugurated into the above office. An oath, if you please, I intend to live up to, in every detail. That is what I meant, if I did not make myself clear at the last meeting of the Board, when I publicly stated, that I stood ready to revoke the license of any place in Redwood City where sworn testimony could be obtained to the effect that liquor was sold.

You further state that many people believe that A. Baradat should have not been the first to be made an example of, in view of the fact that he had only just completed the expenditure of $6000.00 in equipping one of the most attractive eating places in the county, a place that was patronized by the best citizens of Redwood City. As far as I am concerned A. Baradat and his $6000.00 do not enter into the controversy. As far as the best citizens of Redwood City, I wonder who you mean. I know them all, as good citizens, if they are within the law.

I do not want to believe the Times-Gazette is ready to give a clean bill of health to any person or persons who may break the law, because he or they, may be fortunate or unfortunate, as the case may be, to have a goodly amount of these great dollars we hear so much about, which some people put ahead of their God; and I fear we have some of those people in our city. I seriously hope I am mistaken. I do not believe the above citizens, that is the best citizens you speak of, will sanction a place of the character.

Coming back to the $6000.00 and an attractive eating place, don't you think that the proprietor used good judgment (that is if he got away with it) by investing $6000.00, if he did? I don't believe he did. I have heard it said that he got ten months rent free and the bar room fixtures came from some other city where their value were decreased ninety-nine per cent on account of the Volstead Act. We will say that he did spend $6000.00 or $25,000, or any amount you may name. I will say a very good business proposition, to have the exclusive right to the sale of liquors on account of the above expenditures, selling that stuff they call "grappa" at fifty cents per drink, made I wonder, if not in some of the pretty foothills within our midst, at a cost of almost nothing.

In reference to the foreigners you speak of, they will come under the same head that any other person who breaks the law, if sworn testimony can be obtained.

If you will pardon me, I would like to refer to an editorial of the same issue of February 19th, entitled "City Trustees' action meets with approval," I want to say that I very frequently visit the dances in question and very often with Mrs. M. E. Ryan, a proud mother of three boys, with whom she spends most of her time, caring for and molding, with my assistance, Americanism and good citizenship into their hearts. I take it, that no further explanation is required, that is, to the morality and respectability that you speak of. Same can be said of other mothers, who very often visit the above dances with their children. I mention the above facts, that you may understand that there is no Barbary Coast tactics of any nature, or the above ladies would not be there. I may say, in passing, the entertainment is of a much milder form, and as for modesty, much better than most of the leading cabarets and high-class dancing places frequently visited by our so-called best citizens you speak of. I do not want to appear criticizing the cabarets either, which afford good entertainment, as far as I am concerned; and myself and wife visit very often, but I just use these as a comparison. The so-called "shimmy" dance is not allowed in the Foresters' Hall, which is not barred in any of the high-class cabarets.

I will have to refer back to the money question again. As I understand it, the Foresters' Hall Association is in debt to the amount of $6000.00. Strange to say, the same amount that the Saddle Rock Restaurant has spent and received so much sympathy over. I wonder if you want to make a monetary proposition out of the Saddle Rock Restaurant, why make fish of one and flesh of another? The debt of $6000 of the Foresters' Hall Association is a burden to many of the working people of Redwood City. Why not give them the same consideration and use your ink in their defense? They surely are entitled to it, if the other man is. I will say, they are entitled to it, as there is no law being broken, moral law, or any other law. But the liquor interests always have the upper hand, and I imagine or it appears so rather, that they are still on the job.

In closing, I want to say that I am for all the people, no class or factions wield any big sticks over me. And I am desirous of knowing their wants at all times. And I am for making Redwood City a good place to live in and for the strict enforcement of the law. I do not believe that you can legislate people into Heaven, but I do believe its directly up to office holders and men receiving the public's money to enforce the law, and if such is done as stated before, there will be no trouble at dances or any other place. This letter is a personal letter and has nothing to do with any other member of the Board of City Trustees. I speak for myself only.

Yours very sincerely,
M. E. RYAN,
Taxpayer of Redwood City.

In reference to the above communication we can see no ground for criticism, inasmuch as Mr. Ryan agrees with the editorial in question in its entirety. We desired to convey the idea to the public that all places where intoxicating liquor is being sold should be closed. Don't stop with the Saddle Rock restaurant but get all. We assume, by the above letter, that the liquor question is settled for the present.

The point which we desire to impress on the reading public is closing the restaurant operated by Mr. A.

Baradat. The illegal selling of liquor should have been stopped and the guilty parties punished, but Redwood City needs a first-class restaurant and Mr. Baradat certainly filled this need. Whether or not $6000. was actually spent in fitting the place up, or whether Mr. Baradat stole the fittings and beat the carpenters and painters out of their earnings, is not the question at issue, the fact remains that about $6000 was represented in the place, which as an eating house was a credit to the city. We know nothing about the "grappa" nor whether it is made in the green terraced foothills surrounding the broad expanse of the fertile fields overlooking the rippling waters of the Bay of San Francisco.

On last Sunday morning little John Carroll or Jackie, as he was known to his friends passed away at his home in San Francisco. He had been ill three weeks but his death was unexpected and was a great shock to his family. His schoolmates formed a guard of honor at St. James church during the solemn high mass and six of his little friends acted as pall bearers. Rev. Father Lynch, pastor of St. James church delivered a beautiful eulogy over the remains at the conclusion of the mass. The little white casket buried under great quantities of floral tributes was then escorted by his schoolmates and friends to Holy Cross cemetery. Jackie was one of the brightest pupils at St. James school and was ten years old. His mother was the late Nellie Maloney Carroll, formerly of Menlo Park.
